

WHY ARE THEY SMILING?

Because their children are among the lucky few who have access to quality regulated child care.

They're also the BC ministers who are cutting child care funding.

May is Child Care Month

Tired of waitlists and rising parent fees?

Can't afford to have children, or more than one?

Fed up with politicians who don't listen to working families who need child care now?

Don't understand why other provinces are investing in child care – but BC isn't?

Visit or contact your MLA and demand that the BC government build a public child care system now!
